THE ARTWORK

This first portion of this catalog represents works that are available for purchase.

The second portion of this catalog demonstrates the range and variety of Christine's works from 2018 to the present day. While Christine has been painting since 1997 and professionally since 2015, her narratives and symbolism surrounding her work took shape in 2018. Some of the work from 2023-2024 are available, all other works are sold. All pieces in this catalog provide valuable context for her larger narrative arch. Additionally, this catalog demonstrates a capacity for custom commissioned works for a specific show, space or project. Please Email info@christineolmstead.com for a custom quote.
